Secretary's office.

Talked to Bob Joyce, [redacted] while he was in the office I telephoned Averell Harriman and cleared with him the question of Secretary Acheson going to Europe and what should be done about the NATO meeting.

Hosted a luncheon in honor of the Ambassador of Iran, Nasrollah Entezam, who is leaving Washington.

Graham Martin, from the Paris Embassy, came [redacted] to see me. He is just out of the hospital.

Eric Severeid came in, and we had an interesting chat.

Paul Nitze came in. We discussed the Psychological Strategy Board.

This evening E. and I went to the Achesons' for cocktails.
